CASE NO. 1:17CR139-1

Ciera K. Richter

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION 18 U.S.C. 3742 (e) POST-SENTENCING
REHABILITATION PROGRAMMING

Comes Now, Petitioner, Ciera K. Richter request a reduction of sentence pursuant 18 U.S.C. 3742 (e) post-sentencing rehabilitation.

The defendant is currently incarcerated at Federal Correctional Institution
Secure Female Facility She has been incarcerated since November 16th 2017 Hazelton and has an expected release date of March 30th, 2027. During such time she has received 30 certificates, totaling 1655.19 hours.

(PLEASE SEE ATTACHED INMATE EDUCATION DATA SHEET & DISCIPLINARY DATA SHEET)

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3742 (e) the defendant could be considered for a reduction of sentence; Pepper vs. United States, Supreme Court, 131 S. Ct. 1229; 179 L Ed 2d 196, 2001 U.S. lexis 1902, argued December 6, 2010, decided March 2, 2011. The downward variance was based on Pepper's lack of history of violence and Pepper's post-sentencing rehabilitation; as also with United States vs. Booker, Supreme Court 160 L Ed.2d 621, 1255 S. Ct. 736 (2005), Gall vs. United States 552 U.S. 38, 1285 Ct. 586, 169 l ed.2d 445, 2007 Lexis 13083 argued October 2, 2007, decided December 10, 2007. Judge Robert C. Chambers (4th Circuit) granted Terri L. Burns on July 15, 2012 under 18

U.S.C. 3742 (e), a 30 month sentence reduction for programming, Burns received 30 certificates while housed at Federal Prison Camp Alderson in Alderson, West Virginia.

A sentencing reduction based on post-conviction rehabilitation can hardly be said to be inconsistent with the policies underlying an award of good time credit under 18 U.S.C. 3624 (b) because the two serve distinctly different interest. An award of good time credit by the Bureau of Prison (BOP) does not affect the length of court imposed sentence, rather it is an administrative reward to provide an incentive for prisoners to comply with institutional disciplinary regulations. Such credits may be revoked at any time before the date of prisoner's release. 18 U.S.C. 3624 (b) (2).

In contrast, a court's imposition of a reduced sentence based on post-sentencing rehabilitation changes the very terms of imprisonment and recognizes that the defendant's conduct since his initial sentencing warrants less severe criminal punishment. Once imposed, a sentence may be modified only in very limited circumstances 18 U.S.C. 3582 (c). Instead, the difference between the two is reflected most obviously in the fact that the BOP has no authority to award good time credit where the defendant's good behavior occurs after a sentence has already been served.

Wherefore, defendant humbly asks this Honorable Court to accept her certificates for programming and grant a reduction of sentence based on the foregoing.

Respectfully Submitted,

Pro Se

YOUR HONOR,

9-9-21

My name is Ciera Richter. I'm writing this letter in addition to the motion for reconsideration 18 V.S.C. 3742(e) post-sentencing rehabilitation programming to include some personal information and accomplishments. I have been incarcerated since my sentencing with you on March 25, 2019. After you had addressed me in court, I took a hard look at my life. I reflected on how my choices impacted my family and the community. While being completely honest with myself, I have made significant changes in my thinking and my life style. I have included several documents providing accurate verification of consistent post conviction rehabilitation programming. Most importantly, I have completed and achieved my greatest reward my high school equivalency diploma (G.E.D.) which you strongly recommended and I appreciate you for it.

While obtaining my G.E.D. I have also made the choice to participate and complete the Residential Prognosis Treatment Program (RPAP), and the Female Integrated Treatment Program (FIT). I am expected to complete this program this year in December.

Upon my release I plan to be an active member in NA groups / meetings continuing my sobriety. I plan to enroll into college for veterinarian technician to work with animals. I will also continue to be apart of my child's life and be the mother to my child that I never had. I will attend and do everything I'm asked to do by my probation officer or my therapist and successfully transition back into our community. In conclusion of this letter I would like to say a sincere thank you to you for your honorable judge with your firm words and advice. With your I believe I will reintegrate suggestions the community a productive and active member of our society. Thank you again for your honor and the court for your consideration & mercy in this request for a reduction in sentence.

Sincerely,

Ciera Richter
